

MARTIN BASKARAN BRIEF C.V.

Having been born in a house where Show Dogs were pets, it was not difficult to start with my own dogs, my mother bred Great Dane and Miniature Pincher at that time.

In 1978 when I was 15 y.o, decided to start my own kennel, importing a female Borzoi from France, "Micheva de La Marie Graton", of Pierre Deruet kennel, she become champion. A little later I decide to incorporate Afghans, Lhasa Apso and Pekingese.

On 19 July 1980 the F.C.I. granted me with BASTERBERRI affix (F.C.I. number 1315)

Since then, I've gotten over 250 championship titles under F.C.I. and A.K.C. system always with a very tittle production, my motto is quality not quantity.

Apart from the above-mentioned breeds, I also owned, bred and shown Salukis, Greyhound Italian Greyhound, Spanish Greyhound, Bedlington Terrier, Yorkshire terrier, American Cocker, Basenjis, Boxer, Great Dane, Shih tzu, and Boston Terrier.

Lhasa Apso is my most important breed, I have got a lot of top show wins and create a very distinctive line BASTERBERRI.

My dogs have achieved many wins as best dog of the year in Spain of Group 9 for several consecutive years, Best absolute Afghan Hound in Spain, Best Afghan Hound Female in Spain, Best Junior Afghan Hound in Spain, Best Afghan Hound bred in Spain, numerous B.I.S. in several countries, several times Best in Group and B.I.S. the largest Dog Show of Spain, the Madrid Mandatory Point.

Member of the Biscayne Kennel Club Board since 1994, now vice-president, we organize the classic Bilbao International Dog Show, as well other C.A.C. show, Specialties, RCI, etc.

Honour member of the Spanish Afghan Hound and Saluki and other foreign sighthounds Club, member of the committee and Afghan Hound responsible of judges education and breed delegate.

In 1994 I am become C.A.C.I.B. judge under R.S.C.E., since then, I have judged almost in all Europe, South Africa, Australia, South America, North America. Asia, etc, I'm invited to judge at WDS 2020 and EDS 2020.

I'm ALLROUNDER F.C.I. DOG SHOW JUDGE, licensed to judge all breeds and B.I.S.s
